IN DETAIL

I'm a junior developer interested in working with front-end technologies and web design, with a particular passion for uniting accessibility and innovative design in HTML5, CSS3 and JS.

I'm especially committed to issues surrounding diversity and ethics in the tech industry; I've spoken and written about the topics extensively and am involved with a number of tech education and diversity initiatives.

EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF EDINBURGH
1:1 M.A. ANCIENT HISTORY | 2012 - 2016

SHORT COURSES

DEVELOPING GRAPHIC DESIGN
EDINBURGH COLLEGE OF ART | JANUARY - MARCH 2015

WORK IN THE WEB
MIXD, HARROGATE | JANUARY 2015

EXTRAS

Outside of tech, I particularly enjoy writing pop culture criticism; my work as a freelance writer has been published at a number of outlets. I also make a mean lemon drizzle cake.
